

An index of an operation points to a row that does not exist. Note that the index of the bottom row is 0 while the index of the top row is $\text{number of rows} - 1$.